Summary of action items April 7, 2009:

1. Debbie Bartels moved to excuse members Jim Nyholt, Billy Ward and Jon Larsen. Motion received a second and was passed by voice vote.
2. Debbie Bartels moved to accept the minutes from the March 10, 2009 meeting as corrected. Motion received a second and was passed by voice vote.
3. Debbie Bartels moved to allow junior livestock exhibitors to sell all market animals deemed "market ready" and if the 525 maximum limit of animals is exceeded to take the bottom animals of each species off of the sale based upon the judges recommendation. The motion received a second. Discussion followed. Joel Briggs moved to amend the motion to exclude the beef until the 2010 sale. The motion received a second. The amendment passed by voice vote. The main motion now reads: allow junior livestock exhibitors to sell all market animals deemed "market ready" and if the 525 maximum limit of animals is exceeded to take the bottom animals of each species out of the sale based upon the judges recommendation with the exception that no beef would be pulled from the auction for the 2009 year. (sheep, swine and goats might have to be pulled in 2009 and beef, sheep, swine and goats starting in 2010)

Next meeting date: June 2, 2009 at 6:30 P.M.

Adjournment: 7:52 P.M.

Respectfully submitted

Joel Briggs
