7. LOCAL DIVISIONS:

For those divisions identified as "Local," see this rule: You are eligible if your home address lies within the following geographical boundaries: The Los Angeles County/San Bernardino County line on the East; The Ventura County/Los Angeles County line on the West; A line on the South equal to Avenue Y from the Los Angeles County/San Bernardino County line on the East to the Los Angeles County/Ventura County line on the West; A line from the intersection near Gorman of the Ventura County/Los Angeles County lines East along Kern County/ Los Angeles County line to a point equal 270th Street West; Thence North to Bear Valley Road; Thence on a line from the last point described on Bear Valley Road to a point northeasterly at the intersection of Highway 14 and Redrock/Randsburg Road; Thence on a line from the point last described easterly to the Kern County/San Bernardino County line; Thence southerly to the intersection of the Los Angeles County/Kern County/San Bernardino County lines. This Fair is open to all exhibitors who are members of A.V. 4-H Council and/or all 4-H Clubs of Kern County within the boundaries of Local Rule #7. FFA Chapters of the Antelope Valley High Schools, Rosamond, Tehachapi, Mojave, Edwards and Frazier Mtn., also members of other Chapters that live within the Antelope Valley Fair boundaries, Local Rule #7, are eligible to exhibit. Junior and youth Granges members that live within the Antelope Valley Fair boundaries, Local Rule #7 may also exhibit at this Fair.

8. EXTENDED DIVISIONS:

Extended divisions are open to all exhibitors within the United States. State Rules I #10

9. EXHIBITOR STATUS:

Instructors, judges, owner of shops, teachers and those persons who commercialize their work are not eligible to compete in the amateur classes for these Divisions. They may exhibit only in professional Divisions. State Rules I #19

10. CHAMPIONS:

After all entries in the Junior and Senior Departments have been judged in the livestock division, the Champions and Reserve Champions of each of these departments may be brought together for the purpose of selecting the Supreme Grand Champion of the entire Fair. If the number of animals from any group is not sufficient then classes can be combined at the discretion of the judge.

11. SICK OR AILING ANIMALS:

To eliminate delay in treatment of sick or ailing animals or poultry exhibits, the owner extends authority to take such action as deemed expedient and necessary, to Fair Management, when and after diligent attempts to make contact with the owner or agent of said exhibit. Fair Management has the power of attorney for the exhibitor in this instance by virtue of signing the original entry form. The 50th District Agricultural Association will not assume any cost for action pursuant to this rule.

- a) A Veterinarian Sifting Committee will determine health eligibility of all animals prior to penning. This time will be announced. Check in will occur on the day of arrival. Items to be checked, but not limited to, include lamb fungus disease, sore mouth, and specifically for market animals, lambs teeth, prolapsed repair, testicles and tail docking. State Rule IX Sheep #A. All animals without proper tags will be excused from the Fairgrounds, due to the Jr. Livestock Rules stating under the Pre-registration and DNA Sampling section that all market animals are required to complete DNA samples and ear tagging by the entry deadline for that species.

12. 4-H, FFA, GRANGE AND OPEN JUNIOR:

In the 4-H Department the local leaders may sign entry forms in lieu of Farm Advisors. All meat producing livestock must be withheld from processing at least 21 days after inoculations or that length of time prescribed by manufacturer with biologics, unless otherwise stipulated by the Fair. All breeding animals must be owned by exhibitor at least 30 days prior to the opening day of the Fair, all registration papers must be in owner's name 30 days prior to opening of the Fair. Club leaders or agricultural instructors or parents for independent exhibitors must sign entry Forms. All market animals must be weighed on a Certified scale located on the Fairgrounds.

FEEDING TIME: Friday, August 19 through Sunday, August 28, 2011 from 6AM - 9AM and before the Barns Close at 10PM

13. BEDDING:
